User Manual

Rollbase:

Once, you setup the woking environment based on the steps given in the README.txt, you can perform the following operations:

1. Registration: A customer can register to our portal by selecting "Register" option from the menu and providing the necessary details.

2. Placing Order: A logged in customer can book his consignment by selecting "Place Order" option and giving details such as Mode of Payment (Home Service or Self Service), Service (1200, 1030, domestic, airport to airport, door to door), Weight, Logistic Type(Document, Non-Document), Source Address, Destination Address and Location.

3. Estimating Cost: A logged in customer can also see the estimated cost by providing details in the "Estimate Cost" option (Details are similar to the details mentioned in the above point).

4. Track Consignment: A logged in customer can also see the current location of his consignment by entering the consignment id in the "Track Consignment" option.

Web2py:

After setting up the correct environment provided in the README.txt, you can perform the following functionalities:

1. Login/Register: A customer can register to our portal by selecting "Login" option (which also contains the "Register" option) from the menu and providing the necessary details.

2. Placing Order: A logged in customer can book his consignment by selecting "Place Order" option and giving details such as Mode of Payment (Home Service or Self Service), Service (1200, 1030, domestic, airport to airport, door to door), Logistic Type(Document, Non-Document), Source Address, Source City, Destination Address and Destination City.

3. Estimating Cost: A logged in customer can also see the estimated cost by providing details in the "Estimate Cost" option (Details are similar to the details mentioned in the above point).

4. View/Track Consignment: A logged in customer can also see the current location of his consignment by selecting the "View/Track Consignment" option.He can also cancel the consignment if there is no "Track" option available. This means that the consignment has not been dispatched.